

English

Traditional Tales with a twist
Non chronological reports
SPAG - subordinated conjunctions, prefixes and suffixes

Learning to Learn

- Making the best use of our time

PE

Games and multi-skills
Inventing our own team games

Maths

Subtraction
Shape
Multiplication
Measure

R.E.

- The Easter Tradition in Christianity

Geography

- Use maps and pictures to identify human and physical features of the local area
- Lake District - mountains, lakes.
- Scotland, Ireland and Wales.

(History in Summer Term)

Animals and their Environments

Spring Term 2

Hook: Investigate local bird life and views across Morecambe Bay

Experience: Mini Beast Ball / design mini beast costumes.

Art

Close observational drawings of local bird life.
Clay sculpture of birds.

Music

- Easter songs
- Lancashire music hub
- Enjoying music for pleasure and relaxation

Computing

- Using cut and paste
- Using word processing skills.

DT- Design and make a home for a minibeast!

Measure and join recyclable materials together. Investigate joining techniques and adapt our ideas.

Test and evaluate our designs and product.

Science

Animals and habitats

- Why does the Curlew have a long beak? Asking questions and observing local wildlife.
- Investigating the Morecambe Bay habitat and comparing this to tropical habitats
- Investigating mini beasts and their habitats.

